Call for submissions — parliamentary inquiry into electoral structures

The Electoral Matters Committee of the Parliament of Victoria (Australia) is calling for written submissions on possible changes to the electoral structure for the Victoria's Upper House. Submissions can address any of the following questions:

1. Should Victoria be divided into regions to elect members of the Upper House, or should all members be elected by the state as a whole?
2. If there should be regions, how many regions should there be and how many members should each region elect?
3. How many members of the Upper House should there be in total?
4. Are there other changes to the way that members are elected to the Upper House that should be considered?

Submissions are due by 3 February 2025.
