
Sir Ernest Barker Prize Winners

2015	Banu Turnaoğlu	University of Cambridge	The Formation of Turkish Republicanism (1299-1923)
2014	Caleb Hoe-Kit Yong	University of Oxford	Justice, Legitimacy, and Movement Across Borders: A Political Theory of International Migration
2013	Benoit Dillet	University of Kent	The Outside of the Political: Schmitt, Delueze, Foucault, Descola and the Problem of Travel
2012	Daniel Rye	Birkbeck College, London	Political Parties and Power: A Multi-Dimensional Analysis
2011	Lisa Herzog	University of St Gallen	Inventing the Market: Smith, Hegel and Political Theory
2010	Michael Neu	University of Sheffield	The Dilemma of Justified War
2009	Laura Valentini	University College London	Global Justice: Cosmopolitanism, Social Liberalism and the Coercion View
2008	Kai Spiekermann	London School of Economics	Norms and Games: Realistic Moral Theory and the Dynamic Analysis of Cooperation
2007	James Pattison	Newcastle University	Legitimacy and Humanitarian Intervention: Who Should Intervene?
2007	Oliver Dowlen	University of Oxford	The Political Potential of Sortition
2006	Garrett Brown	University of Sheffield	Kantian Constitutional Jurisprudence and a Minimal Ethical Foundation for a Cosmopolitan Order
2005	Andrew Shorten	University of Manchester	Treating Cultural Commitments Fairly: A Cosmopolitan Account of Multicultural Justice
2004	Christiane Hiley	University of Newcastle	Alien by Degrees: Philosophical and Linguistic Exploration of Citizenship
2003	Lynn Dobson	University of Essex	Towards Political Agency in a Community of Rights: Citizenship of the EU and the Philosophy of Alan Gewirth
2003	Andrew Schapp	University of Edinburgh	Political Reconciliation
2002	Graham Long	University of Newcastle	Relativism and the Foundations of Liberalism
2001	Sorin Baiasu	University of Manchester	Persons and Politics in Kant and Sartre
1999	Derek Bell	University of Newcastle	The Metaethical and Ethical Basis of Political Theory: A Dual Standpoint Approach

1998	Steven P Wall	University of Oxford	Liberalism, Perfectionism and Restraint.
1997	Matthew Clayton	University of Oxford	Educating Liberals: An Argument About Political Neutrality
1997	Gareth Williams	University of Manchester	An Essay on Action and Knowledge in 'Kant's' Critical Philosophy.
1996	Ricardo Blaug	University of Manchester	Factual and Counterfactual Participation: Discourse Ethics and Democratic Practice
1995	Lilian Zac	University of Essex	Narratives of Order: the Discourse of the Argentinean Military Regime 1976-83
1994	Norbertode Sousa	University of Cambridge	Societas Civilis: Classical Roman Republican Theory on the Theme of Justice
1993	Davina Cooper	University of Warwick	Sexing the City- Lesbian and Gay Municipal Politics 1979-87
1991	Mary Cox	University of Essex	'Unsex Me Here': The Political Roles of Women- Shakespeare and the Modern World
1990	Karen Hunt	University of Manchester	Equivocal Feminists: The Social Democratic Federation and the Woman Question, 1884-1911
1989	Jeremy Shearmur	London School of Economics	The Political Thought of von Hayek
1989	Rachel Walker	University of Essex	Soviet Marxism- Leninism and the Question of Ideology: A Critical Analysis